with full UK & International Travel

A voracious networker and a tenacious learner, Perry has enthusiasm and stamina that goes beyond the realms of known human energy levels! A soul music aficionado, his hero is Berry Gordy Jnr – founder of the Tamla Motown empire. He uses a musical/cult lens for his own brand of HR practice – the rebel with a cause; using anarchic productivity and having attitude with acumen that is #PunkHR.

When he is facilitating, he holds rooms and drives creativity and breakthrough thinking at all levels. When he is coaching, he thrives on the art of the possible and helping people focus, energise and believe.
